BCCSWC: Young Professionals Business Network Official Launch

The Young Professionals (YPs) Business Network official launch was successfully held on Nov. 8th, 2011 at Yanlord Landmark. It witnessed a participation of over 140 guests.

Richard Morgan, Vice-Chair of BCCSWC and Chair of the YPs Business Network made an introduction about the working group. He explained how the YPs Business Network was established as a joint venture between the British Chamber of Commerce Southwest China, private enterprises, NGOs, and government bodies to connect, guide and work with Chengdu's young professionals. He went on to discuss its aims to provide a network and establish solid relationships between these bodies and Chengdu's young business community, giving them opportunities to learn, grow and work together.
